

WORKSHOP POLICY

All Crooked Creek Art League (CCAL) workshops are subject to cancellation if the published workshop minimum registration is not met. Cancellation may also be at the request of the presenter or CCAL due to unforeseen events.

Available workshops will be announced by posts on the CCAL website and on social media; and notification via email to members. Enrollment for workshops will be open exclusively to CCAL members for a two-week period from the announcement, and a deposit will be required to hold a seat. At the end of the two-week period, any vacant seats will be open to the general public and will also require a deposit to hold a seat. A waitlist will be created for those wishing to attend the workshop after all seats are filled. No deposit is required to be on the waitlist. All deposits will be refunded only if the workshop is sold out and the vacant seat is filled.

This policy can only be overridden by a majority vote of the Executive Committee in cases of extenuating circumstances. Refunds issued will be less any applicable payment processing fees (e.g., credit card or PayPal fees).
